

STEPS programme application form

1. Personal data:

First name Family name

Home address

Gender F M Date of birth Nationality

Country of residence EAU member number

Fluent in English Yes No

2. Contact information:

Current position Position held since

Hospital (complete address)

Postal code Telephone

Name of department Head of department

3. Academic information:

How many years have you worked in uro-oncological care? <1 year 1-3 years >3 years

Have you been involved recently in projects or research programmes in uro-oncological care? Yes/No

If yes, please describe in 2-3 lines

Number of publications you have contributed to as a named author

Number of posters and/or abstracts you have presented

4. Special interest*: Please rank the following topics in ascending order of interest to you (1 being the highest and 4 the lowest)*

Prostate cancer Bladder cancer Renal cancer Testis cancer

* The goal of the STEPS programme is to help enhance your current skills and give you an experience which is relevant to your ongoing work. As such, the interests you select in this section should be relevant to your current work as well as your preferred future progress.

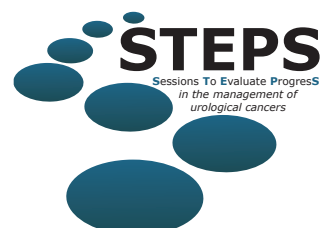

5. Your application must be accompanied by:

- A. A current CV
- B. An up to date publication list
- C. A letter from your Head of Department endorsing your application

Please complete and return to:
Atrium Communications
Email: matthew.hebdon@atriumhealth.co.uk
Fax: +44 (0)1245 808 267

Signature

Application deadline: 29th October 2021

The STEPS programme is supported by Ipsen.